Trying to Economize? Here's Your Chance
The high price of shoes need not worry you if you wear Hanovers.
Want a genuine calfskin shoe in black or in the popular nut brown Russia? We have it—on a wonderfully smart last, too—price, $4.50.
When you buy that shoe you get the best—the same quality and style that costs $6 to $8 in high-priced shops.
Does the former popular price of $3.50 appeal to you still? Well, we can accommodate you with a corking good shoe—one that can't be equaled under $4.50 elsewhere.
Hanovers are world-beaters. You save a couple dollars on every pair you buy. Ask the man who wears them.

HUNGER-STRIKING PICKETS ARE FED AGAIN BY FORCE

Forceful feeding of the hunger-striking militant leaders at the District Jail continues.
Miss Alice Paul was fed for the fourth time this noon, and Miss Winslow for the third time.
The situation apparently has resolved itself into what may be a long drawn out battle.
Miss Paul's sister has not been admitted to see her, although this morning she flung the term "murderer" in the face of L. F. Zinkhan, superintendent of the jail.
Mr. Zinkhan and Dr. J. A. Gannon, chief jail physician, say that the nervous condition of "the patients" and the hospital rules preclude the admission of any one.
Dr. Gannon and Mr. Zinkhan say that the condition of the women is not critical, nor even serious, and that until it should become so no one will be allowed to see them.
Mrs. William Paul, the mother of Miss Alice Paul, was telegraphed for this morning and will come at once. Whether she will be admitted to the jail, authorities would not say.
Dr. Gannon says that the women are making no serious resistance.

NEW YORK WOMEN WANT JAILED PICKETS TREATED AS POLITICAL PRISONERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The following resolutions have been adopted and sent to the President:
"We 500 New York women voters, assembled in the Ritz-Carlton ball room, demand that Alice Paul, Rose Winslow, and their comrades, innocent women, now illegally and unjustly imprisoned for asking for liberty, be treated as political prisoners according to the custom of the civilized world."
"We 500 New York women voters demand that you recommend in your opening message to the forthcoming session of Congress the immediate submission of the national suffrage amendment and give assurance of your active support."
"MRS. C. H. P. BELMONT, Chairman."

DR. J. WILBUR CHAPMAN STRICKEN ON PLATFORM

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 9.—The Rev. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church and an evangelist of international note, is at a local hotel in a serious condition, following his breakdown last night just as he started to address a gathering of 1,500 Presbyterians here. Attending physicians say that he is suffering from overwork.

WAR CONFERENCE TO PERFECT POOL, U. S. DOMINATING

The outstanding result of the Inter-Allied Conference at Paris will be the perfection of international pooling arrangements among the allies, all of which will ultimately be dominated by the United States.
An outline of this plan has been made by high officials of the Washington Government, and the special commissioners dispatched by President Wilson to take part in the Paris conference have full instructions to complete all arrangements.
The new plan—a democracy of nations formed to combat the central power autocracy—is designed to hasten the end of the war by concentrating the military moves of all the allies and later "concerting their peace moves."
The immediate effects of the adoption of the plan will be the bringing of the direction of all the economic aspects of the war under one ruling body, and in all probability that body will sit at Washington.
The first pool to be perfected will be a shipping pool to be made up of the merchant marine fleets of all the allies. The United States Shipping Board has the plant worked out in detail after consultation with representatives of the principal allied governments.
This pool and others contemplated can be enforced because the United States now is the king-pin in the war. To the United States every allied nation now looks for supplies and money. Arms, ammunition, food, fuel, money, and men to make the victory over Prussianism complete must come from an American source. This now is realized in foreign capitals, and the American commissioners are armed with a weapon which will make their proposals bear extraordinary weight.
Officials are careful to explain that there is no intention on the part of the United States to belittle the tremendous efforts which England, France, and other allied nations have made. There will be no unwarranted arrogation of power. The plan merely provides for the centralization of the direction of the entire war.

HERE TO INTERVIEW PRESIDENT WILSON, THEY GO TO ASYLUM

President Wilson today will be deprived of the privilege of lending his ear to two ardent admirers who journeyed here from afar to solicit his aid. Their visits will be deferred while physicians at Washington Asylum Hospital observe their mental condition.
Robert Emmett Bracken, aged thirty-seven, whose boat, according to the police, is that he "hasn't done a lick of work in fifteen years," was taken into custody yesterday at the Senate entrance to the Capitol by Policemen Edward Bean. He had come, he stated to complain to the President about the bad food being served guests at "United States hotels," from one of which he had been released some time ago.
"I haven't had anything to eat for eight days," he told Bean. "and I must see Mr. Wilson about it." He died at the hospital.
Michael Sowa, twenty-one years old, of Schuyler, N. Y., was taken up yesterday at Union Station by Headquarters Detective Barbee after informing the latter with emphasis and repetition that he "had come all the way to Washington to see either President Wilson or Gen. George Washington." He was informed that neither of the gentlemen could be interviewed at the moment, and consented to a trip to Anacostia.

WILL RENEW MONARCHY PACT. AMSTERDAM, Nov. 9.—

PRETTY GIRL KISSES 25 RECRUITS INTO UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—When pretty Miss Marie Antoinette Elliott folded Frank Martin in her arms at the noon-day recruiting meeting at 217 Broadway the Kaiser accumulated in a moment twenty-five of the most enthusiastic and willing enemies that ever marched off to battle. For the young woman, glowing with the impulsive enthusiasm of the occasion, literally kissed the twenty-five men into the United States navy.
"Come along," she said. "I'll engage to keep the first man who enlists in tobacco, clothing, and books."
She paused for a moment and looked over the field, her fair face radiant and her bright eyes snapping merrily.
"I'll be a sister to him for the duration of the war, and after," she added.
Frank Martin, standing near the rail, couldn't stand the pressure. He vaulted over the rail, onto the platform and seized the girl's hand. She moved forward to meet him. Whether it was Martin's enthusiasm or a strategic design nobody will ever know, but he leaned forward to be kissed.
Miss Elliott hesitated for a second.

BRAZIL'S MASSING OF BORDER FORCE AROUSES DISTRUST

RIO JANEIRO, Brazil, Nov. 9.—In official circles here, Argentina's assertion that the mobilization of her troops in boundary provinces is merely precautionary against a German uprising is far from satisfactory. It is said today. There is a belief among them that Argentina is contemplating a renewal of the dispute over Misiones province, which was settled by President Grover Cleveland some years ago.
Another internal problem that confronts Brazil today is a renewal of active propaganda by the monarchists in two important districts—Rio Grande do Sul and Porto Alegre.
From Santa Anna de Livramento comes the report that the settlement of a third strike among railway employees is far off. It is believed by officials that the Germans are fomenting the movement. These strikes, officials declare, are part of a revolutionary movement.
The chamber has just passed a measure, which is concurred in by the senate, which prohibits the entrance into Brazil of Germans from Uruguay.
General martial law has been approved by the chamber, but the senate, which favors martial law in the coast states only. A definite understanding between the two branches of the government may be reached today.
